What is registration?

The main purpose of registration is to protect the public as it ensures only those who are competent and qualified can deliver care and support in roles where registration is required.

Being registered with us means you are part of a professional workforce and can show that you have skills and knowledge which are vital to providing good care and support to the people of Wales.

Here is a quick video guide to registering with us.

Here's a quick guide to essential information about registration with Social Care Wales.

Social Care Wales maintains the register of social care workforce in Wales.

The Register shows who has shown they have the right values, skills and training to be a social care worker.

It helps the public to know they can trust you and rely on you as a worker.

When you are registered, you'll be able to use the title of your profession.

You'll also be supported by

- the code of professional practice for social care
- Formal practice guidance that describes good practice
- Information and resources that tries to address some of the things that are important to you in your work

· Invitations to events, conferences and consultations

It's time to Register!

Everyone on the register must agree to follow the Code of Professional Practice and Practice Guidance for their role. Copies can be found within the application form and on our website.

To start your application, visit SCW online.Wales to create an account.

SCW online is our registration portal. It includes step by step guides on how to register.

If you aren't registered yet, you can use SCW online to apply online.

As a part of this process, you'll need to upload the documents listed and choose an appropriate person to endorse your application.

Once you are registered, you can use SCW online to maintain your registration.

Allowing you to update any changes such as your address, job details, personal and professional information, renew your registration and pay your fees.

You can also use SCW online to keep an up-to-date record of your continuous professional development (CPD).

Who needs to register

The Register is open to the following groups of workers:

- social workers
- social work students

Social care managers

- residential child care managers
- adult care home managers
- domiciliary care managers
- adoption service managers
- adult placement managers
- advocacy managers
- fostering service managers
- residential family centre managers.

All social workers and social care managers must register once they have completed their qualification or they start in their post.

Social care workers

- residential child care workers
- domiciliary care workers
- adult care home workers
- residential family centre workers.

All social care workers should register as soon as possible following the below guidelines:

- If you started working as a social care worker before the 30 September 2022, you'll have 12 months from the start date of you job to register
- If you started working as a social care worker from 1 October 2022 to 31 March 2023, you'll need to register with us by 1 October 2023.
- If you started working as a social care worker on or after 1 April 2023, you'll have six months from the start date of your role to register with us.

It is a legal requirement for workers in these roles to register with us.

If you're not sure if you need to register with us or when you should register by, please get in touch with our team for help by emailing registration@socialcare.wales.

The benefits of registration

There are benefits to being a registered person, they include:

Building trust and confidence

- people can rely on registered social care workers
- people have confidence knowing you follow the Code

Valuing social care workers

- you can show you have the skills and knowledge to be a social care worker
- you can show you're trained and take responsibility for developing knowledge and skills
- employers can provide the support and development you need
- knowing more about you will help us plan ways to support you.

Making sure people are safe

- protecting people's rights and making sure they are listened to
- supporting people to be independent and protect themselves
- if a worker is not fit to practise they can be removed from the Register and unable to practice in Wales.

Other benefits

- being able to legally use the title of your profession
- get support and information from our practice guidance documents and other publications
- invitations to events and conferences
- invitations to consultations.

Here are two case study videos showing the benefits of being a registered worker with us.

Why we register

We keep a register of people who have shown they are suitable to work in social care. Everyone on the Register must show they are;

- are appropriately qualified

- are physically and mentally fit to practise
- have the character and competence
- following the Code of Professional Practice for Social Care \(the Code\) and practice guidance for their role
- intend to practise social care in Wales
- will practise in the field their application relates to their application for registration.

We use the Social Care Wales (Registration) Rules 2022 to maintain the Register. These rules are approved by Welsh Government and are the framework for registering the social care workforce.
